A Japanese Love Song

The wind is gently sighing
  Through the maple trees,
The tall bamboos are swaying
  Softly in the breeze;
And as I sadly listen,
  Listen dreamily,
I think I hear you singing,
  Singing, love, to me.

I know it is but fancy
  That I feel you near,
But oh, I'm filled with longing
  Your dear voice to hear;
And oft the evening breezes,
  Almond scented, bring
The rippling of your koto,*
And I hear you sing.

Madge Dickson.
